30 over-the-top hotel amenities around the world

While most can't resist swiping those shampoo bottles checking out—they want you to take them, we swear!— nice toiletries just aren't enough anymore. Luxury hotels around the world are upping the ante by offering guests indispensable amenities they can't find elsewhere. Whether you're interested in tracing your ancient family history, browsing the web on a 24-karat gold iPad, or cruising along the coast in a European sports car, Stacker's rounded up 30 hotels that offer the best things—and experiences—money can buy.

On-site skating rink at RiverWalk Resort at Loon Mountain, Lincoln, New Hampshire

This brand-new resort transforms its 167,000-gallon lagoon swimming pool into a skating rink each winter. The perfect ice surface is maintained by state-of-the-art cooling technology and a mini-Zamboni. They also host several professional shows throughout the season for guests to attend.
